

Weingut Jordan – Hidden Gem in Austria's Wine Quarter

The Jordan Winery in Groß-Reipersdorf near Pulkau has been dedicated to winemaking tradition since 1858. Simone and Hannes Hiller-Jordan manage the modern family winery in its fourth generation. Their philosophy: vinifying elegant wines that leave a lasting impression.

The Pulkau vineyards form a red wine island in the white wine-dominated Weinviertel region – which explains the winery's special affinity for red wine. In addition to expressive red wines, the soils of ancient rock and loess also enable an impressive range of Grüner Veltliners and award-winning winegrower Sekts that have received international acclaim.
